University Open Ended Items

Open 1 What helped you learn in this course?

The many different types of writing I did.

Professor Rea's availability and openness in providing feedback was a vital part of my success in this class. The feedback was always critical, appropriate and delivered with kindness. Very important...

The instructor was extremely helpful with any issues and in giving feedback.

Peer and Professor feedback on assignments was a great tool rhetorical writing

Open 2 What changes would improve your learning?

None. A very good course overall.

more feedback on my writing

ENG109 Explain how you have used the ideas or techniques presented in this class outside the course.

Made me a more critical thinker.

Being in the military I don't write all that much and never had to. This class improved my confidence in my writing ability.

Consolidating my thoughts and "unpacking" my thoughts were repeated challenges earlier in the course. Preparing an outline to structure my thoughts into bullet points first helped me get over that hurdle. Consequently, I use the outline methodology for all my papers. The most recent of which includes a (6) page Capstone paper for GEOG 3N.

I've used them I my other writing classes which helped to improve my writing.

ENG110 Compare the quality of instruction in this course with that in other required courses.

This course is absolutely at or near the top of my list.

The instruction in this course was good and helpful.

The instruction was great.

Clear, concise and easy to follow compared to courses where the prompts are too many and becomes overwhelming.

ENG111 Please comment on any aspects of the course (e.g., rough draft sessions, revision sessions, audiovisual materials, and so on) that you found helpful or not helpful.

Some of the revision activities were a bit cumbersome.

What was most helpful is how the assignments are timed and staged. For working adults the Discussion > Workshop > Draft / Final Draft process was very helpful in providing a "crawl-walk-run" environment for building writing skills.

It all was extremely helpful to me, do to the lack of writing a substantial paper in 14 years.

The peer feedback was among the most helpful of all in this course.

ENG112 What specific suggestions can you make to improve the course or the instruction?

No suggestions needed.

Keep on keeping on
